HELLO and WELCOME!

My name is Robin Kovitz and, as the President and CEO of Baskits Inc., I'd like to personally welcome you to our wonderful company!

Baskits is a unique business because it exists to Spread Joy and Build Connections, and we have been successfully pursuing this mission for 40 years! Along the way, we have established four cornerstone elements that make us the premier gifting company in North America:

- 1 Our sophisticated design and procurement processes result in the most elegant gift baskets and gift boxes containing the highest quality products.
- 2 We possess the finest systems and infrastructure in the gifting industry. We have invested heavily in logistics, technology and facilities, including the recent acquisition of our brand new, state-of-the-art office and warehouse. This allows us to flawlessly execute on any order, no matter the size or complexity.
- 3 The guidance and assistance of our gifting experts, our end-to-end gift tracking, and our gift guarantee ensure that you receive the very best customer service.
- 4 We care deeply about contributing to our community and the world. This is reflected in everything we do, and also resulted in our recent certification as a "B Corp". B Corps are businesses that are motivated by not just profit, but also by social and environmental good, and we are so proud to be included in this amazing group.

All of this means that we provide an exceptional experience for each of our customers and the recipients of their gifts, as evidenced by our thousands of 5-star reviews. We feel privileged to play a small part in Spreading Joy and Building Connections – a calling that we believe is increasingly important in today's challenging world.

We hope you enjoy our newly curated collection of gifts and we are, as always, honoured to assist you with all of your gifting needs. Thank you for your business and support!

Sincerely,
Robin M. Kovitz
President & CEO, Baskits Inc.

This year we are so proud to be celebrating the 40th anniversary of Baskits! It is exhilarating to think about all the joy that has been spread by our little company over those many years, and we're so excited to continue our mission well into the future!

In recognition of this amazing milestone, and in reflection of our endless pursuit of growth and progress, we are thrilled to unveil our logo re-design!

Highlighted in the new logo is our brand new heart symbol. The heart represents so many elements of our business: the love and kindness passed by our customers to their gift recipients, the heart and soul we pour into each and every one of our products, the thought and care we try to apply to our business and its place in our community and the world at large. We hope you love the new logo as much as we do! ♥

Corporation

WE'RE a certified beneficial corporation or ("B CORP.")!

This year, we proudly became a Certified Beneficial Corporation or ("B Corp."), which means we're part of a global community of businesses that meet the highest standards of social and environmental impact. B Corps do the right thing, even when it's not the easy thing.

From day one, our goal has been to balance profit with purpose, and becoming a B Corp is one way in which we're held accountable to this goal. We're constantly working on our commitment to sustainable, ethical and transparent business practices and we're thrilled to be on this journey towards continuous improvement and collective action!

SUPPLIER SPOTLIGHT

Our Jake and Jill knit dolls are handmade with care in South America using generations-old knitting experience. We are proud to support these Artisans with sustainable and equitable trade. We help ensure rural working mothers are paid fairly for their work and able to work from home with flexible hours, which allows them to also provide care for their families.

supporting communities for 40 YEARS

We always seek out the very best for our customers and their gift recipients. This means that we are relentless in our pursuit of the very best brands, and over the years we have built relationships with the most amazing suppliers who supply products for our gift baskets and boxes of stunning quality and beauty. As part of our procurement process, we are especially proud to have partnered with many women-owned businesses from across North America.
